

Sample questions for Admission Test

Please read all the questions carefully and mark the answers on the bubble sheet provided along with question booklet according to the guidelines given on the bubble sheet. Please remember that all questions are mandatory to attempt.

1. A current trend in defining intelligence includes which of the following?

- a. A move towards more context dependent types of abilities
- b. A move back to g factor or general mental abilities
- c. A move towards more physiologically related intellectual abilities
- d. All of the above
- e. e. None of the above

2. After getting failed a course the student state that he/she failed because the instructor didn't like him/her and held a grudge against him/her. This would be an example of which of the following defense mechanism

- a. Projection
- b. Rationalization
- c. Sublimation
- d. Introjection

3. A phenomenon in which observers who work closely together unknowingly begin to move away from other observers in their ratings is called.

- a. Observer Drift
- b. Observer Shift
- c. Observer Lift
- d. Observer Rift

4. An experiment involves randomly assigning 120 participants to three separate conditions such that there are 40 participants in each condition. His study is a _____ design.

- a. Within-subjects; quasi-experimental
- b. Between-subjects; quasi-experimental
- c. Between-subjects, experimental.
- d. Within-subjects; experimental

5. Which of the following statements is correct?

- a. Heritability of intelligence remains constant over different ages
- b. Molecular genetics research in intelligence can be done with minimal resources
- c. The negative effect of very poor environments on IQ can be minimized by exposing these children to enriched environments
- d. Schooling does not seem to affect IQ scores

6. A researcher plans to measure the efficacy of CBT among university students with performance anxiety problem. For this purpose, researcher plans to assess the level of performance anxiety on monthly basis for 3 months then teach students techniques of CBT to overcome anxiety and then assess students on performance anxiety for next three months.

Which of the following quasi research design is that researcher using

- a. Pretest Posttest Design
- b. Nonequivalent Control Group Design
- c. Time Series Designs
- d. Longitudinal Design